

- 10. List the secondary school from which you graduated, and all community colleges, four-year colleges, and universities attended. Include summer and study-abroad programs.

School	Location	Dates Attended
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

- 11. List college and high school activities (include student government, sports, school publications, student-faculty committees, arts, exchange programs, tutoring, etc.).

College Activity	Dates
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

High School Activity	Dates
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

12. List public service and community activities (include projects with community organizations, environmental protection and conservation efforts, advocacy activities, and work with religious organizations). Do not repeat items listed previously.

Activity	Dates	Number of Weeks Actively Involved
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

13. List awards, scholarships, or special recognitions you have received. Do not repeat items listed previously.

14. What are the three most significant courses you have taken in preparation for your career? Why?

Optional Financial Information:

15. Indicate to what extent you have worked or intend to work to meet your expenses. How would receipt of this scholarship impact your work and enrollment plans for the next year?

16. List ANY outside tuition assistance you will receive or for which you are an applicant from any source. Include WICHE, employers, parents, government agencies, scholarships, faculty/staff tuition reduction.

17. What is your annual income? If you are married, please include that of your spouse. If you are claimed as a dependent by someone else, such as your parents, please include their income.

18. How many dependents are in your care?

19. How much do you owe in non-mortgage debt?

Attachments:

20. Attach a statement of not more than 500 words to this application concerning your educational and vocational plans and why you feel you are qualified to receive a scholarship. You may tailor your response to the requirements of a specific scholarship listed below.

21. All college transcripts should be attached to this application or sent to the FCS Department.

22. Two letters of recommendation are required and should be sent directly to the FCS Department of your major. One letter must be from an academic source, the other a character reference. Recommendation form can be found at: www.fcs.utah.edu/undergrad/scholarships/recommendation_form.pdf. Letters written on letterhead are strongly encouraged but are not mandatory for FCS scholarships.

23. I certify that the information provided on this form is true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that scholarship committee members may review any transcript of credits that I may provide. I understand that if I am selected as a scholarship recipient and I change my major to one that is no longer in the Department of Family and Consumer Studies during the scholarship term, my scholarship will be terminated.

DATE: _____ SIGNATURE: _____

Mail or bring this application form and all attachments (see below) to the FCS DEPARTMENT (AEB 228) by 4:00PM, FEBRUARY 10.

- Checklist of Attachments:
- 1) All College Transcripts
 - 2) 500-word Statement
 - 3) Two Letters of Recommendation

You may select the scholarship(s) you wish to apply for specifically, or you may select the “All of the Above” option at the end of the list.

All scholarships include a tuition waiver up to 18 credits for one or two semesters.

(Note: These scholarships cover tuition only; they DO NOT cover student fees.)

Leadership, academics, and service

- Sterling Sill Scholarship
This scholarship was endowed by the family of Sterling Sill. This scholarship is given to a student who excels in leadership, academics, and service (click here to learn more about this scholarship).
- Olpin-Ashton Trust and Fellowship
This scholarship was endowed by Dr. Virginia Cutler and it honors A. Ray Olpin (a former University president) and Raymond J. Ashton (a local architect). This scholarship is given to a student to help him/her prepare to be a leader in the field of Family and Consumer Studies (click here to learn more about this scholarship).
- Esther Peterson Scholarship
Utah native Esther Peterson served three United States Presidents, and was a dominant force in the consumer movement. This scholarship is in her honor and memory and aids students who have demonstrated positive social participation and achievement (click here to learn more about this scholarship).
- Barbara Christensen Scholarship
The Christensen Scholarship was established in the memory of Barbara Christensen, who graduated with honors from our department with a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics with a secondary education credential in June 1954. It was made possible by her sister and family. This scholarship is to inspire and help FCS students reach their professional goals and aspirations.

Human Development and Family Studies

- Hulda Van Steeter Garrett Memorial Family Strengths Scholarship
Established by Dr. Barbara Vance, a U Home Economics graduate, to recognize and honor Hulda Van Steeter Garrett. Recipients of the scholarship will be undergraduate students in Family and Consumer Studies who show most promise in pursuing a career focusing on developing family strengths, including students studying human development, family interaction, consumer economics, family life education and marriage and family therapy (click here to learn more about this scholarship).

Consumer and Community

- Elva Acklam Stark and Arvil L. Stark Scholarship
Elva Acklam Stark was a librarian at the University of Utah Marriott Library from 1962-74. This scholarship that she and her son, Douglas, so generously donated was also in memory of her late husband, Arvil L. Stark. It is awarded in the hope that the student recipient will work to facilitate cleaner, safer, healthier, more beautiful and law-abiding communities.
- Eda Parkinson Anderson Scholarship
This scholarship honors Eda Parkinson Anderson, who was a student at the University of Utah in 1928, majoring in Home Economics. It is a gift from her husband, A.J. Anderson and was established to help students learn to be wise consumers and to build strong enduring families.

Miscellaneous

- Virginia Cutler Fellowship
The Virginia Cutler Scholarship was originally a scholarship named for and endowed by the Cutler Family. Upon the death of Dr. Virginia Cutler, a former FCS department chair from 1946-52, the scholarship name was changed to honor Dr. Cutler (click here to learn more about this scholarship).
- Colleen Cluff Caputo Honor Scholarship
The Colleen Cluff Caputo Honor Scholarship was created to honor Dr. Colleen Cluff Caputo, a retired faculty member from the Family and Consumer Studies Department. Dr. Caputo made significant contributions to the development of the current interdisciplinary program in the Department (click here to learn more about this scholarship).

Faye D. Taylor Memorial Scholarship

This fund was initiated in 1977 in memory of Faye D. Taylor, an assistant professor in clothing and textiles in FCS. It has been made possible by the generous donations of her friends, family and colleagues.

Ann Maughan Scholarship

As a tribute to her mother, Ann Maughan, Mary Ann Atkisson and her husband, Curtis Atkisson, created a scholarship in her name. Ms. Maughan is a 1928 graduate of the Department and is still quite active in matters that interest her.

Sara Baum Welke (Ida Mae Hanks) Scholarship

Sara Baum Welke was an aunt of Ida Mae Hanks, who was an Idaho native. In her will, Ms. Hanks endowed this scholarship in her Aunt's memory to help other Idahoans or other nonresidents of Utah receive an education from the University of Utah.

All of the Above

If you select this option, you will be considered as a candidate for all of the above scholarships. If chosen to receive a scholarship, you will be awarded the scholarship that best fits your application and your personal statement.

NOTE:

1. If you are a double major within the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, you only need to apply through one department.
2. Only submit requested materials.
3. Scholarship materials should NOT be sent to the College Dean's office. All requested materials MUST be sent directly to the department office of your major. Any materials (applications, personal statements, transcripts, or letters of recommendation) sent to the Dean's office will NOT be forwarded, resulting in an incomplete application that will not be considered by the scholarship committee.

The University of Utah is fully committed to policies of nondiscrimination and equal opportunity, and vigorously pursues affirmative action in all programs, activities, and employment with regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, and status as a person with a disability. Religion, sexual orientation, and status as a disabled veteran of the Vietnam era also are protected under nondiscrimination and equal opportunity employment policies. Evidence of practices not consistent with these policies should be reported to the University Of Utah Office Of Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action, (801) 581-8365. The University of Utah Center for Disabled Student Services, (801) 581-5020 (voice or TDD), provides resources and support services for students with disabilities.